

PCG Meeting, Wed., Nov. 13, 2013 - Notes and Links

Steve Gibson explains CryptoLocker to Leo Laporte's Radio Show audience:

<http://twit.tv/show/the-tech-guy/1026> (see 24:30 or 28:00 to 37:00)

Details:

<http://www.bleepingcomputer.com/virus-removal/cryptolocker-ransomware-information>

A prevention solution:

<http://www.foolishit.com/vb6-projects/cryptoprevent/> (I'm suspicious for this one))

Another prevention solution:

http://www.thewindowsclub.com/hitman-pro-alert-review-free?utm_source=feedburner&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=Feed%3A+TheWindowsClub+\(The+Windows+Club\))

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5M8YYnXIAIw> (wonderful video illustration)

<http://www.surflight.nl/en/alert/cryptoguard> (dead easy to use, but I'm unclear about licencing)

http://www.thewindowsclub.com/remove-ransomware-hitmanpro-kickstart?utm_source=feedly (more info on HitmanPro ransomware cleaner)

Maybe the best way to stay safe, if you can do the work!

<http://www.sandboxie.com/> (looking for a volunteer to demonstrate this software to Bits & Bytes)

An illustration about the pitfalls to watch for when installing software:

https://www.google.ca/search?q=img+burn&oq=img+burn&aqs=chrome..69i57.4292j0j7&sourceid=chrome&espy=210&es_sm=93&ie=UTF-8