[Ⓚ] This trailblazing and immensely popular issue inspired First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy to persuade the N.G.S. to collaborate with The White House Historical Society, to publish in 1962, a public service book titled "The White House: An Historic Guide". Slightly updated editions were republished in nine editions over the years. This led to other public service books covering the nation's capital. This endeavor was the genesis of the Special Publications Division, which commenced in 1966, a series of 4 books per year, through to the present day!

A Supplemental List

Year	Month	Details
1979	January	Whales Record issue - with "Songs of the Humpback Whales" insert This is the third and final record insert issues (Aug. 1965 & Dec. 1969) Only valuable if record unremoved,
1984	March	Bald Eagle issue – Hologram Issue
1985	November	Human Skull - anthropological discovery – Hologram Issue
1988	December	Earth issue – with McDonald's Holographic ad on back cover. Solid gold front and back and quite unique. Hard to find. These are the only 3 hologram issue made
1985	December	There have been six Titanic issues following the discovery of the wreck. Not being a “news” magazine at the time, there was no mention of the Titanic disaster in the April or May 1912 issues
1986	December
1987	October
1998	August
2004	December
2012	April
1993	November	The Water Issue (a special issue to make 13 for the year instead of 12)
1981	February	The Energy Issue (a special issue to make 13 for the year instead of 12) Often people are looking for both the “Water” and “Energy” issues together as a set.
1985	June	The Afghan Girl cover Probably one of the most iconic and famous cover photos of all time. Highly collectible.
1988	September	NGS Society “Centennial” issue – Special cover, with no photo.
1998	August	Return to Mars – with 3D photos and included pull-out 3D glasses * only valuable if 3D glass unremoved
2002	April	Afghan Girl is Found issue Pairs well with the 1985 issue as a set
